"Seek - Find - Share"

April 2007

LAST MONTH

We had another bout with the elements as torrential rain and tornado warnings were flying about Atlanta. For those who braved the weather, we had a chance to hear how Susan Hale uses sound to interact with and activate sacred sites. The acoustic design features of many ancient sites were described, and the interaction of masculine (spires, cathedrals) and feminine (sacred springs) influences of the Michael and Mary lines in England.

MEETING

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

Sis Sewell will speak at the April meeting to share her experiences with dowsing and help others find ways to determine physical maladies using their dowsing skills. Sis combines aspects of medical intuitives, numerology, nutritional interactions, energy medicine, and other knowledge to help many people resolve physical and inner issues. Her principles include: [a] whatever you get, you can get rid of, [b] steps you take into a diseased state can be reversed back into a healthy state, and [c] "The energy of Truth" - or "getting it" (and everyone is capable of "getting it"). Sis has been involved with First Georgia Dowzers for many years. For those of you who have not had the chance to meet Sis or see her techniques in action, this will be a stimulating experience!

Visit our NEW MEETING LOCATION at Sandy Springs Christian Church at the corner of Johnson Ferry road and Abernathy road (see driving directions below).

FUTURE MEETINGS

REGAINING MOMENTUM

The 3 months at the inconvenient temporary meeting location and the adverse weather in February and March has cut into our attendance! Another result is that most of our friends have not renewed their FGD memberships yet. See Sis Sewell this month and Jack Derby in May to hear some fascinating talks and get involved with exciting new activities!

DOWSING TIP

Subtle energies behave differently than physical forces - including the concurrent existence of positive and negative polarity. Nonphysical patterns exist with their opposites without diminishing their strength. Physical energies cancel an opposing charge; only the difference is measured. Dowsing distinguishes the "active balance" (the presence and interplay of both factors) and measures it. Next time you measure a polarity (positive/negative, beneficial/detrimental, healthy/toxic,) measure the opposite and see if there is an active balance present.
